

BEACON OF HOPE SHINES ON OUR COMMUNITY: RENOWN WELCOMES
FIRST BABY OF 2021

Reno, Nev. (Jan. 1, 2021) – Renown Health is excited to announce a hopeful moment to start the new year with the first baby of 2021. Jessa Mae Estrada, 26, of Reno gave birth to baby Oli Amelia Estrada at 3:59 a.m. on Jan. 1, 2021. Baby Oli weighed 5 pounds, 14.4 ounces and was the first 2021 birth at any of the region's hospitals.

"Baby Oli's birth serves as a beautiful symbol of hope for all of us as we look forward to brighter days ahead full of joy, promise and new beginnings," said Tony Slonim, MD, DrPH, Renown's President and CEO. "As we take time to reflect on the many challenges and uncertainties brought on in 2020, I will never forget the steadfast determination and resilience demonstrated by our entire community. For it is our collective ability to overcome adversity that makes celebratory moments like these even more meaningful."

Baby Oli is welcomed to the world by her father, Oliver Estrada, siblings Nate, 2, and Naz, 1, and grandparents Charito and Eduardo Estrada.

"I am excited to welcome our first baby of 2021 and celebrate this joyful moment," said Larry Duncan, Vice President of Pediatrics and Surgery and Administrator, Renown Children's Hospital. "I want to wish all of the new parents the best and make sure they know Renown is here to provide the quality care the families in our community deserve."
