

RENOWN SEEKS HANDCRAFTED MASKS FOR HOSPITAL VISITORS

Need Also Exists for Handmade Gowns and Surgical Caps

RENO, Nev. (April 10, 2020) – Renown caregivers are grateful for the community’s love and enthusiasm for sewing masks, gowns and surgical caps. We continue to need these items and appreciate your support.

Masks for Patient Visitors: We are requesting that community members sew masks for loved ones visiting patients at Renown Regional Medical Center and Renown South Meadows Medical Center. All patterns and cotton or cotton-blends are welcome.

Isolation Gowns: For community crafted isolation gowns, please use the Renown-approved pattern <https://www.renown.org/wp-content/uploads/202-0330-02.1-Iso-Gown-Pattern.pdf> and instructions <https://www.renown.org/wp-content/uploads/202-0330-02.2-Iso-Gown-Instructions.pdf>.

Bouffant (Surgical Caps): The pattern we are using for community-crafted Bouffants is available here: <https://www.renown.org/wp-content/uploads/Bouffant.pdf>

Donations are welcome at our drive-thru, open Monday–Friday, 9 a.m.–5 p.m., located in the valet area of Tahoe Tower at Renown Regional Medical Center. All handcrafted masks, gowns and surgical caps will be laundered and sanitized before being distributed.

We are so grateful for our community’s support during these unprecedented times. To address the many generous offers of assistance, we have compiled this information and hope you find it helpful. <https://www.renown.org/donations-covid-19/>.
